

Explore your World right from home with the entire family:
25 Virtual Field Trips!

Think back to when you were a child going on a field trip with school. Do you remember packing that very special lunch? You had a big fat sandwich, a can of soda, a bag of chips, and maybe even a candy bar... All the stuff you were not allowed to bring to school for lunch. I suggest that you do the same thing when you do your virtual field trip. Pack a special lunch for each one of you. Spread out the blanket in front of the television or in front of your computer screen... get yourselves comfortable and go visit places around the world.

Virtual Field Trips. I suggest clicking on all the links. I think you will find very interesting experiences on each site that will hopefully inspire you to dig deeper.

Enjoy your trip around the world! Through jungles and over mountains. From museums and concert halls to national parks and landmarks...To the moon and back!
